Infomatrix Technologies is an IT Solutions Company managed by professionals having rich experience in Information Technology Services viz Offshore Software Development, On-site Development and Integration, Web Application Development, Search Engine Optimization etc. To clients from the International market as well as the domestic industry. What we thrive upon is customer satisfaction and technical expertise. And to make our services really unique, we blend it with innovative concepts.Infomatrix Technologies is able to offer clients the best in customer Software and Web service while also providing cutting-edge, customized solutions at extremely competitive prices.

Web Designing

Get a professional, world class design for your website. You can attract surfers to your website only with eye catchy design and quality work. A proven fact - first thing people ask is: "what's your company website address?" Our core strengths lie in designing interfaces for interactive web-sites and complex web applications. We offer designs that are both aesthetic in appeal and superior in performance. The designs, graphics, animation are unique and effectively present your company and products through web media.

Software Development

Infomatrix Technologies software development services are intended to serve businesses that are software outsourcing development and programming to India, by judicious blend of Business analysis Management with latest technology Infomatrix technologies develops state-of-the-art and custom software & web based applications Infomatrix technologies enable reduction in the time and resources spent for a business process to take place for the clients and serve to eliminate functional bottlenecks.

Internet Marketing

We are skilled in building complete, turn-key e-commerce solutions that can incorporate a number of complex functionality points, including integration with back-end catalog and legacy systems, interfacing real-time with a payment gateway, and containing a full administration site that will allow you to easily maintain the products and content on your site. E-Commerce solutions are an easy extension of commerce. It is an accomplishment of financial business transactions or sharing information with business persons, consumers or others over the internet. Infomatrix Technologies provides complete e-commerce solutions at affordable prices.

Web Hosting

We are skilled in building complete, turn-key e-commerce solutions that can incorporate a number of complex functionality points, including integration with back-end catalog and legacy systems, interfacing real-time with a payment gateway, and containing a full administration site that will allow you to easily maintain the products and content on your site. E-Commerce solutions are an easy extension of commerce. It is an accomplishment of financial business transactions or sharing information with business persons, consumers or others over the internet. Infomatrix Technologies provides complete e-commerce solutions at affordable prices.

Web Development

Our web development process ensures that your project remains flexible. At any point, you have the possibility to add features to your website as we work on a modular platform that allows for an unlimited number of additions to be made to your back-end features. For our SEO clients, we have created URL rewrite engines to improve the search engine friendliness of their URL's.

Flash Designing

Flash banners are an essential part of web advertising. We can create attractive banners that optimize your brand image and deliver a targeted message through moving Flash motion graphics. Our Flash designs are not based on templates; our website designs and animations are original and custom-made for each client.